NOMINATIONS

Announcement of nominations is communicated via email to the Board of Directors, Leadership Council and Chapter Executive Directors. Announcement of nominations to the general membership is communicated in TXCPA publications and via the TXCPA website.

Nominations must be submitted by a current member of TXCPA and should be submitted by someone other than the nominee. Nominations must be submitted through the online nominations form no later than the first business day following August 15 of each year. Nominators only need to submit the name and position for which they are nominating. Once nominees are vetted by TXCPA staff for eligibility, they will be asked to confirm their willingness to serve and to complete a nominee profile form, which is used by the committee and council during their review and selection.

Members of the current Nominations and Board Development Committee and Nominations Council shall not be eligible for consideration for any positions they are responsible for selecting.

Information Gathered from Nominees:

- Chair-elect nominees
 - TXCPA service history, including AICPA, TSBPA and chapter service records
 - Employment, community service activities (Bio/Resume/CV)
 - Headshot
 - One-page statement of his/her ability to best perceive and advance the interest of the Society
- All other nominees
 - TXCPA service history, including AICPA, TSBPA and chapter service records
 - Condensed biographical sketch
 - Nominees have the option of submitting additional information such as a bio/resume/CV

CAMPAIGNING

Organized letter-writing campaigns and/or other methods of electioneering are not encouraged. Communiqués from the general membership should not be sent to individual members of the Nominations and Board Development Committee or Nominations Council, but rather to the staff liaison to each group marked attention to the chair of the Nominations and Board Development Committee and Nominations Council.

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE SELECTION MEETING

The Nominations and Board Development Committee will meet over two days in late September/early October to review and select candidates for chair-elect, treasurer-elect, secretary, Board of Directors and at-large members of the Nominations and Board Development Committee.

The Nominations Council will meet in late September/early October to select candidates for the at-large members of the Leadership Council, Nominations Council and nominees for AICPA Council.

Prior to the meeting, interviews are set up by the staff liaison with each chair-elect nominee and the Nominations and Board Development Committee members.

The Nominations and Board Development Committee and Nominations Council shall consider demographic data for all positions and attempt to seek balance and diversity with the slate of nominees but must use judgment in selecting the individuals who will best represent the interests of the Society.

Voting

When voting is required, two-thirds of the committee/council membership shall constitute a quorum. After review and discussion, any member may request a secret ballot. It has been common practice for the committee to conduct anonymous voting for all positions. The chair is considered a voting member.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All committee and council discussions are considered confidential, and views expressed will not be communicated outside the committee and council meetings. After all nominees have agreed to serve if elected, the entire slate of nominees may be made public.

SLATE OF CANDIDATES

Once the official report is submitted to the President & CEO, the final slate is sent to the Board of Directors, Leadership Council and Chapter Executive Directors by the staff liaison to the committee and council. It is also announced to the general membership through TXCPA publications and on the TXCPA website.

ELECTION

The following positions require a vote by TXCPA members:

- Chair-elect
- Treasurer-elect
- Secretary
- Board of Director
- Leadership Council at-large members
- Nominations and Board Development Committee at-large members
- Nominations Council at-large members

An anonymous vote by the membership is conducted between late November and early January through an electronic platform approved by the Board of Directors. Bios are presented for all nominees, and headshots are presented for all. Results are presented at the Midyear Leadership Council meeting in January.
