Charity

Volunteer Responsibilities:

- It is your responsibility to collect charitable contributions from all participants. We require a minimum amount of $10 to the charity of their choice; however, participants may choose to contribute more money or to more than one charity at their discretion.
- Use the charity booklet provided to review options with participants.
- Ensure the participant writes in “Charity to ____” on the bank ledger and assist in calculating the deduction from the checking account when needed.
- Initial the participant’s card to indicate that the participant visited your booth.

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is a global nonprofit housing organization working in local communities across all 50 states in the U.S. and in approximately 70 countries. Habitat's vision is of a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

Habitat works toward our vision by building strength, stability and self-reliance in partnership with families in need of decent and affordable housing. Habitat homeowners help build their own homes alongside volunteers and pay an affordable mortgage.

Ronald McDonald House

The Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth (RMHFW) provides a supportive, home-like community that eases burdens for seriously ill children and their families. Our vision is to reach all families in need of our services. Through our 55,000 square foot Ronald McDonald House, the Ronald McDonald Family Room located inside Cook Children's Medical Center, and the Day Program, we strive to provide a sense of normalcy during an otherwise stressful time.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

St. Jude is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

The mission of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is to advance cures, and means of prevention, for pediatric catastrophic diseases through research and treatment. Consistent with the vision of our founder Danny Thomas, no child is denied treatment based on race, religion or a family's ability to pay.
