

The Texas Society of CPAs is seeking college students to serve as our connection to every campus in the state. Working with Texas students to share resources and engage the next generation of CPAs is an important initiative for TXCPA.

Our goals are to strengthen TXCPA's presence on Texas campuses, share information across the state and learn more about what we can do to support Texas students and educators.

Criteria to Apply to Serve as a TXCPA Student Ambassador:

- Must be a member of TXCPA and the local chapter.
- Must be recommended by a professor or faculty advisor.
- One student ambassador for undergraduate and one for graduate will be assigned per campus each fiscal year. Applications accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Expectations for TXCPA Student Ambassadors:

- Assist in the recruitment of student members to TXCPA.
- Identify campus opportunities for TXCPA.
- Work with the faculty ambassador to promote TXCPA student membership.
- Participate in TXCPA informational conference calls, as needed.

Student Ambassadors will Receive from TXCPA:

- Complimentary membership in the Society and the local chapter.
- Access to event reimbursement funds, by request.
- An introduction to the local chapter via email upon confirmation of ambassador status.
- The opportunity to list student ambassador status on their resume.
- Recognition at appropriate Society and chapter events and in relevant TXCPA communications, including Today's CPA.
- Contact and updates from TXCPA staff on a monthly basis.
- Connection with a faculty ambassador when appropriate.
- Recruitment materials, as needed.
- Guest speakers, by request.

I understand/agree that if I am accepted as a TXCPA Student Ambassador, I will fulfill the expectations stated above.
